

INSTRUCTIONAL OBJECTIVES

Social Studies – First Quarter

Seventh Grade

The student will:

- Analyze how feudalism, manorialism, and the results of the Black Death typify basic economics
- Evaluate how events of the Late Middle Ages contributed to the development of democracy and nations
- Demonstrate how to use maps and other geographic representations to acquire, process, and report information
- Analyze how European society experienced cultural and religious transformations from the 11th to 16th centuries
- Identify the role played by prominent individuals of the Late Medieval and Early Modern time periods

INSTRUCTIONAL OBJECTIVES

Social Studies – Second Quarter

Seventh Grade

The student will:

- Analyze patterns of global interaction in the Age of European Exploration
- Analyze political changes during the Ages of Absolutism and Atlantic Revolutions
- Demonstrate how to use maps and other geographic representations to acquire, process, and report information
- Analyze the intellectual changes during the Scientific Revolution and Enlightenment
- Identify the role played by prominent individuals from Christopher Columbus to Napoleon Bonaparte

INSTRUCTIONAL OBJECTIVES

Social Studies – Third Quarter

Seventh Grade

The student will:

- Analyze the causes and consequences of the Agricultural and Industrial Revolutions
- Analyze the causes and consequences of political revolutions in the 19th century
- Demonstrate how to use maps and other geographic representations to acquire, process, and report information
- Analyze patterns of global change in the era of the “New Imperialism”
- Identify the role played by prominent individuals of the 19th century

INSTRUCTIONAL OBJECTIVES

Social Studies – Fourth Quarter

Seventh Grade

The student will:

- Compare and contrast competing economic systems from the Interwar Period to today
- Analyze trends in national politics and international relations in the 20th century
- Demonstrate how to use maps and other geographic representations to acquire, process, and report information
- Identify patterns of global interdependence and parochial independence
- Identify the role played by prominent individuals of the 20th century